Grandson and grandfather receive degrees from the University of Kentucky on same day

The Falmouth Outlook carried the story about Brandon Wilson graduating from the University of Kentucky on May 10, 2014 with a major in history. What made this story so unique was the fact that his grandfather Harrison Wilson II had applied to attend the University of Kentucky in 1946 and was refused entrance. That did not stop Harrison Wilson from getting his education. His accomplishments are as follows: he was a high school basketball and baseball star, graduated from Kentucky State with honors, earned his doctorate from Indiana University; was hired as a basketball coach at Jackson State University for 17 years, held administration positions at Tennessee State University and Fisk University; in 1975 Harrison was hired as president of Norfolk State University, a small black school in Norfolk, VA. where he served 20 years and more than doubled the student attendance there four times over. The newspaper received the photo above that was taken at graduation. Pictured above back row, from left: Brandon Wilson, cousin Rachel Wilson, and his mother and father, Tressa and John Wilson. Front row is Harrison Wilson II, 89. UK presented him with an honorary doctorate.

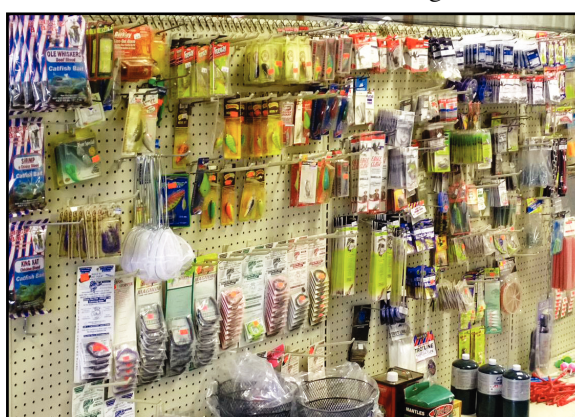

Licking River RV Campground and Bait Shop now open

The Licking River RV Campground and Bait Shop will hold its grand opening on Saturday, May 24, 2014 from 11 a.m. until late in the afternoon at 302 KY 22 East Falmouth. The campground officially opened in October of 2013 and the new bait and tackle shop has been operating for the last week or so.

The bait and tackle shop is offering a wide assortment of fishing accessories plus live bait of all kinds. In addition to the bait and tackle, the shop will also be providing a variety of camping necessities such as medical supplies, groceries, all kinds of drinks, including beer, novelties and antique dishes.

Toys have also been added for quite an eye catcher, so be the children. As an attraction, the artwork of local artist, Kirk Sullivan, will be on display in the shop and can be purchased there. Hopefully, by the end of the week Kirk will have the mural completed on the front of the shop. It is

Steele earns cheerleading scholarship to Morehead

By Sam McClanahan

Last Thursday, May 15, a dream nearly a decade in the making came true for 17-year-old Madison Steele. Surrounded by family and friends, she signed a Letter of Intent to further her education while receiving a cheerleading scholarship to Morehead State University. She becomes the first cheerleader from Pendleton County High School to cheer for the coed squad at MSU.

Steele has spent four years cheering for PCHS on the varsity level and nine years overall. She will be joining an Eagles program that is among the most successful in the country. Morehead State currently holds 23 National Championships and 35 titles overall. From 1991 to 2000 the MSU straight coed squad won 10 straight championships, and 11 consecutive titles in straight coed from 2002-12. Since 1998, the all-girl squad has claimed eight championships in a 15-year span.

"I have always strived to reach my goal of becoming a cheerleader at the collegiate level and I am now proud to be part of the best team in the nation. It is all very exciting," said Steele.

Madison has already enjoyed a great deal of success during her cheerleading career. She has been a part of numerous championship squads including in 2010 when her high school team won the International Championship. She has been a part of seven different all-star clubs that have claimed national championships, two of which competed at the World Cheerleading competition.

Steele has been trained by some of the premier cheerleading coaches in the country, many of whom are former MSU and University of Kentucky cheerleaders.

"I have also been majority influenced by my parents who are always there to support me through all of my aspirations. I am also very fortunate to have been given a strong foundation at the high school level under my head coaches Kelley Carlisle, Felicia Caldwell and Sarah Moorhead," explained Steele.

Madison credits Butler resident and legendary MSU cheer coach Myron Doan for much of her success to this point.

Doan, who began coaching the MSU program in 1979, led the coed squad to 13 national titles and six championships for the all-girl squad after its inception in 1994.

"Madison brings a great combination of skills to MSU and she will be a terrific asset to the program," said Doan.

"She has a great amount of experience under her belt and has competed at the highest-level. Madison has a great personality, vibrance, and excels at tumbling and stunting. Above all else, she is very coachable and an extremely bright young woman," continued Doan.

Beginning this fall, Steele will be immersed in a sport that truly knows no offseason. MSU cheerleaders attend both football and basketball games even when the two sports overlap. All that know her will attest that she possesses the drive and work ethic to help MSU continue its long tradition of excellence.

Madison is the daughter of John and Margie Steele of Butler.

Falmouth awarded $3,850 LEPP Grant

Governor Steve Beshear announced Friday, May 16 that the city of Falmouth has been awarded a state Law Enforcement Protection Program (LEPP) grant for $3,850 to purchase body armor.

A total of 27 law enforcement agencies were awarded $120,950 in LEPP grants, which are administered by the Kentucky Office of Homeland Security to give financial help for certain items essential in the course of their duties.

"These grants provide important funds for law enforcement agencies to acquire necessary protective equipment for their officers who endeavor to keep our Commonwealth safe and secure," Gov. Beshear said.

"It is critical that we provide our first responders with the tools they need to carry out their important jobs," said state Sen. Katie Stine, of Southgate. "I am thankful to our Office of Homeland Security for their oversight of this grant program - one that allows communities to better equip our law enforcement officers for protecting the citizens of the Commonwealth."

May proclaimed Motorcycle Awareness Month

By Roger McKinney, Reporter

The fiscal court approved a proclamation that established May as Motorcycle Awareness Month in Pendleton County. Over 250,000 Kentucky citizens are licensed to operate motorcycles in the Commonwealth. The document asked Pendleton County motorists to be cognizant of motorcycle riders on the county and state roadway systems. Accepting a copy of the proclamation was Keith Roberts, who was in attendance, representing motorcyclists in the Northern Kentucky region.

Judge Bertram announced that Pendleton County had received a clean audit report for the fiscal year 2012-2013.

Germans return to Falmouth

Jorg Loleit and Matthias Hemm, from Frankfort, Germany and Felix Thiede from Hamburg, Germany, came back to Falmouth, Kentucky on April 23, 2014 to visit with their old friend, Mike Schuetz. The three had previously visited Mike in 2003 and 2004. As members of the Mercedes Club they are fond of classic Mercedes Benzes. They appreciate only the very best in automobiles. Their rule of thumb is, "Life is too short to drive a substandard vehicle." As Germans they are connoisseurs of great beer. "Life is too short to drink a substandard alcoholic beverage," is their companion philosophy. While in Falmouth Mike's friends stayed at the Back In Time Bed and Breakfast. McDowells assist in Arkansas

Mary and Susandawn McDowell of Pendleton County Red Cross recently returned from Vilonia, Arkansas. They were there thirteen days helping with the tornado recovery. They went for sheltering but instead helped with the food ERV's. This was a different experience but also a learning one. Susandawn had the chance to go on the ERV's and learn the feeding process and see a lot of the destruction caused by the tornadoes. She also learned how to operate the radios and communicated with the ERV drivers. Mary worked in the office keeping track of the meals given out and turning them in to headquarters. "We are so glad we can go when we are needed," said Mary. "Please keep the people in the Arkansas tornado area in your prayers. They still have a long way to go before being able to have a place to live." From left: Mary McDowell and Susandawn McDowell (in Red Cross vests) are shown with Holly and Jeremiah Williams, who are formerly of Falmouth but were not affected by the tornadoes.

Summary of Ordinance 94.05-2014

The following constitutes a summary of an ordinance enacted by the City of Falmouth on December 11, 2013, which establishes a Code Enforcement Board pursuant to the provisions of KRS 65.8801 to 65.8839.

The Code Enforcement Board Ordinance establishes definitions, establishes a three (3) person Board of citizens of Falmouth, which Board has the power to issue remedial orders, and impose civil fines as a method of enforcing city ordinances when a violation has been classified as a civil offense, but shall not have the authority to enforce any ordinance as an offense under any provision of Kentucky Revised Statutes, including the Kentucky Penal Code and any moving motor vehicle offense. Members of the Board are appointed by the Mayor, subject to the approval of the Council, appointed for initial staggered terms, and all subsequent appointments shall be for a term of three (3) years, which members may be re-appointed by the Mayor. Alternate members may be appointed to serve in the absence of regular members, and a vacancy shall be filled by the Mayor within sixty (60) days, and if not so filled, the remaining Board members shall fill the vacancy. Members may be removed from office by the Mayor with approval of the City Council for misconduct, if inefficiency, or willful neglect of duty, and all Board members shall take the Kentucky Constitutional Oath of Office. Members shall be reimbursed for actual expenses, and may be compensated no more than $100 per meeting. No member may hold any elected or non-elected office, paid or unpaid, or any position of employment with the city.

The Board shall annually elect a chair, may elect to hold regular meetings each month, hold special meetings and conduct all meetings and hearings in accordance with the Kentucky Open Meetings Act. An affirmative vote of the majority of a quorum of the Board shall be necessary for any official action to be taken, which must be memorialized by minutes reflecting the vote of each member on any issue decided by the Board. No member having a conflict of interest directly or indirectly shall be counted for the purposes of establishing a quorum and must disqualify from voting on the matter.

Code Enforcement Board has jurisdiction over all city ordinances which specifically provide for enforcement by the Board and which contain provisions for the imposition of civil penalties. It shall have the following powers and duties: to adopt rules and regulations governing its operation, to conduct hearings, to subpoena violators, witnesses, and evidence, take testimony under oath, to make findings of fact and issue orders necessary to remedy any violation of city ordinances within its jurisdiction, to impose civil fines as authorized, and to impose enforcement costs against violators.

Enforcement proceedings shall be initiated by the issuance of a citation by the Code Enforcement Officer, which may be issued on personal observation or investigation, or reasonable cause to believe that a violation of the ordinance has been committed. In lieu of a citation, the officer may give notice that a violation shall be remedied within a specific period of time, and if the problem is not remedied, the city will issue a citation. If the violation is remedied, the citation will not issue; otherwise, the officer is authorized to issue a citation.

Citations shall contain the following information, the date and time of issuance, the name and address of the person to whom it is issued, the date and time of the offense was committed, the facts constituting the offense, the section of the code where the number of the ordinance violated, the name of the Code Enforcement Officer, the civil fine that will be imposed for the violation if the person does not contest the citation, the maximum civil fine that may be imposed if the person elects to contest the citation, the procedure necessary for the person to follow in order to pay the civil fine or to contest the citation, a statement that if the person fails to pay the civil fine or contest the citation within time allowed the person shall be deemed to have waived the right to a hearing before the Board to contest the citation and determination of the violation was committed shall be final. Upon issuance, the officer shall notify the Board by delivering the citation to the administrative official designated by ordinance or the Board. The person to whom this citation is issued shall respond within 7 days of the issuance by either paying the civil fine or requesting in writing a hearing to contest the citation. Failure to respond to the citation within 7 days shall be deemed that they waived their right to a hearing and determination of the violation was committed shall be considered final in the fine and any other remedial measures set forth shall be imposed, as will be the case if the alleged does not contest the citation within the time frame prescribed.

When a hearing has been requested, the Board shall schedule the hearing for the next regular meeting that will permit adequate notification to be made to all parties. Not less than seven (7) days before the day of the hearing the Board shall notify the requester of the date, time and place of hearing, which notice may be given by certified mail, return receipt requested, by personal delivery, or by leaving a notice at the persons usual place of residence with an individual residing there and who is eighteen (18) years of age and who is informed of the contents of the notice. Any person requesting a hearing but fails to appear shall be deemed to have waived their right to a hearing, and the determination shall be final. The Board shall enter a final order determining the violation was committed and shall impose the fine set forth in the citation, and copy of the order shall be served on the violator. All testimony shall be under oath and recorded, and can be received from the Code Enforcement Officer, the alleged violator, and any witnesses to the violation offered by either side. Formal rules of evidence do not apply, but the fundamental due process shall be observed and shall govern the proceedings. The Board shall, based upon the evidence presented, determine whether a violation was committed, and issue an order dismissing the citation or upholding the citation and either imposing a fine up to the maximum authorized or requiring the violator to remedy and continue in violation or both. Every final order shall be reduced to writing, which shall include the date the order was issued, and a statement that if the civil fine is not paid within 14 days from the date of the order a lien shall be filed for the civil penalty assessed in a legal expense that the city may occur. A copy shall be furnished to the person named in the citation and the order, and if the person is not present when the final order is issued it shall be delivered in accordance with the procedures set forth herein.

Each case before the Board shall be presented by an attorney selected by the city or by the Code Enforcement Officer of the city, and if the Board determines it needs counsel to advise the Board such attorney may be counsel to the Board or may present cases before the Board but in no case shall the counsel to the city serve in both capacities. Any appeal from a final order of the Board may be made to the Pendleton District Court within thirty (30) days of the date the order is issued. The appeal shall be initiated by filing the complainant a copy of the Boards order and in the same manner as a civil action under the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure, and if no appeal of the final order of the Board is filed within the time allowed the Board's order shall be deemed final for all purposes.

Violations of ordinances that are enforced by the City of Falmouth Code Enforcement Board shall be subject to the civil fines set forth in the ordinance establishing a violation. The city shall have a lien upon property owned by the person found by a final non-appealable order of the Board or by final judgment in court of have committed a violation of a Falmouth City Ordinance for all fines assessed for the violation and for all charges and fees incurred by the city in connection with the enforcement of this sub-chapter under this ordinance. The lien shall be recorded in the office of the County Clerk and shall bear interest at 12% per year. This lien takes precedence over all other subsequent liens, except state, county, school and city taxes and may be enforced by judicial proceedings. In addition to this remedy, a person found to committed the violation is personally responsible for the amount of all fines assessed for violation, charges and fees incurred by the city in connection with the enforcement of the ordinance, which may be enforced by bringing a civil action against the person and the city same remedies as provided for the recovery of a debt.

The provisions of the ordinance are severable and if any is found to be invalid that finding shall not necessarily invalidate the entire ordinance. Nothing in the ordinance prohibits the city from taking immediate action to remedy a violation whether there is reason to believe violation presents a serious threat to public health, safety and welfare or in the absence of immediate action effects the violation will be irreparable or reversible.

The ordinance shall be effective on January 1, 2014.

I hereby certify that I have prepared this Ordinance Summary, and further that I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Fifth graders visit Pendleton County attractions

Northern Elementary students spent Friday, April 18 touring two attractions in Pendleton County. The first attraction they visited was the Pendleton County Justice Center. The students received a tour of the facility by Mr. Redden and his staff. They also spent time learning how the center works with the Judicial Branch of Kentucky State Government.

The second attraction they visited was Punkytown, owned by Charles "Punky" and Joyce Beckett. The students were led through the quaint town by tour guides Dane Schumaker, Fisher Hurst, and Amy Hurst. The students had been learning about primary resources in Social Studies. Primary resources are artifacts (items) from the past. The students were able to view resources in areas of agricultural, med-

ORDINANCE 2014- 72.01B

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 50 OF THE CODE OF ORDINANCES RELATING TO UTILITIES TO ESTABLISH A WATER SERVICE CROSS CONNECTION PREVENTION PROGRAM, REQUIRING NEW AND SUBSTANTIALLY IMPROVED OR MODIFIED WATER SUPPLY SYSTEMS, THOSE REQUIRING A PLUMBING PERMIT, TO BE EQUIPPED WITH A BACKFLOW PREVENTION ASSEMBLY PRIOR TO INSTALLATION OF A SERVICE CONNECTION TO ANY CITY OF FALMOUTH WATER SUPPLY LINE, INCLUDING RESIDENTIAL AND NON-RESIDENTIAL BUILDINGS, AND DEFINING TERMS, ALL TO MEET REQUIREMENTS OF KENTUCKY REVISED STATUTES AND KENTUCKY ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS.

WHEREAS, the Kentucky Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet has enacted administrative regulations which require every public water system to determine if or where cross connections exist and to eliminate them; and

WHEREAS, the City of Falmouth recognizes it has a responsibility to protect the public health by providing a safe source of drinking water, and that cross connections could affect the health and economic growth of the community; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary and proper to amend the Code of Ordinances to comply with such requirements.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it Ordained by the City of Falmouth:

SECTION 1. That a new section of Chapter 50 of the Code of Ordinances relating to Utilities be and hereby is enacted to read as follows:
CROSS CONNECTION PREVENTION REGULATION

Section 1. PURPOSE and AUTHORITY.

(A) It is the purpose of this ordinance to establish a program to assure that the public water supply is protected from any auxiliary water supply which may cause contamination due to backflow or cross connections. Contamination of the public water supply presents an imminent health hazard to the residential and non-residential users of the public water system; there is the threat of significant economic loss due to disrupted water service to such residential and nonresidential water users and potential liability to the City.

(B) It is the further purpose of this ordinance to meet the requirements of 401 KAR 8:020 as enacted by the Kentucky Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet.

SECTION 2. Definitions. As used in this ordinance, unless the context clearly requires a different meaning:

(A) "Auxiliary Water Supply" means any water supply on or available to the premises other than the City's public water supply. These auxiliary waters may include water from any natural source such as a well, spring, river, stream or body of water or any water or other substance of unknown or questionable quality that may present a health or system hazard to the potable public water supply.

(B) "Backflow" means the reversal of the normal flow of water caused by either back pressure or back siphon age.

(C) "Backflow Prevention Assembly" means an assembly or means designed to prevent backflow. A listing of acceptable backflow prevention assemblies and degree of hazard is available in the Kentucky State Plumbing Law, Regulations and Code.

(D) "Contamination" means an impairment of the quality of the potable water supply by any waste product, fluid, substance, compound or other material to a degree that creates an actual or potential hazard to the public health through poisoning or through the spread of disease.

(E) "Cross Connection" means any physical connection or arrangement of piping or fixtures between two otherwise separate piping systems one of which contains potable water and the other nonpotable water or substance of questionable quality, through which, or because of which, backflow may occur into the potable water system.

(F) "Thermal Expansion Tank" means a device installed on the cold water supply line near a water heater to compensate for the expansion of water within a water system when such water is heated.

(G) "Substantially improved or modified" means improvements requiring issuance of a plumbing permit prior to construction or connection.

SECTION 3. Requirements. In order to provide protection to the public water system against backflow the following requirements shall be met.

(A) "Residential" - Buildings used for habitation or occupancy shall be considered as residential buildings. No new or substantially improved or modified water service connection to any premises shall be installed or allowed to be installed by the City unless a backflow prevention assembly protects such service connection. Residential service connections shall be considered as low hazard applications and all such connections shall have at a minimum a dual check valve backflow preventer installed between the water meter and the residence. The City may require additional or alternate backflow prevention assemblies if the degree of hazard constitutes a higher level of protection for the public water system.

(B) "Non-Residential" - No new or substantially improved or modified water service connection to any non-residential facility shall be installed or allowed to be installed by the City unless such water service connection is protected by a backflow prevention assembly. The type of protective device required shall be determined at the time of installation of the service connection and shall be commensurate with the degree of hazard at the point of such service connection. At a minimum the service connection shall be installed with a dual check valve backflow preventer. In the event activities to occur within a non-residential facility change and creates a higher degree of hazard, then the backflow prevention assembly shall be replaced with an assembly that provides acceptable protection.

(C) "Inspections" - The customer's water system shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times to authorized representatives of the City to determine whether cross connections or other structural or sanitary hazards, including violation of this ordinance, exist. When such a condition becomes known, the City may deny or immediately discontinue service to the premises by providing a physical break in the service line until the customer has corrected the condition in conformance with the State and local statutes relating to plumbing, water supplies and the regulations adopted pursuantly thereto. Water service to any premises shall be discontinued if it is found that a backflow prevention assembly required by this ordinance has been removed, bypassed, or if an unprotected cross connection exists on the premises. Service will not be restored until such conditions or defects are corrected.

(D) "Existing Service Connections" - All existing water service connections which do not have backflow prevention assemblies or existing water service connections which have less than the minimum required backflow prevention assemblies, shall, except for the inspection requirements, be excluded from the requirements of this ordinance so long as the City is assured that the public water system is satisfactorily protected. However, if the City determines that a hazard to health exists, or the administrative regulations of the Commonwealth of Kentucky so require, then a backflow prevention assembly meeting the requirements of this ordinance may be installed on such existing service connection. Backflow prevention assemblies shall not be installed on existing service connections until after the property owner of such residential or commercial property has been informed of the actual and potential hazards that may be created as a result of such backflow assembly installation. Notices provided to such property owners shall include the following language as adopted in 815 KAR 20:120 Section 2. Item (6):

When cross connection control devices are properly installed, they create a closed water system. A properly sized thermal expansion tank shall be installed in the cold water supply located as near the water heater as possible.

SECTION 4. Severability. If any provision of this Ordinance is deemed by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable or unconstitutional or in conflict with applicable laws of the Commonwealth, the remaining provisions of this Ordinance shall continue in full force and effect.

SECTION 5. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall take effect upon its passage, approval, and publication in Summary as required by law.

SEN. KATIE STINE REVIEWS KENTUCKY CONGRESSIONAL WEEK

It has been a good week for Northern Kentucky, as we celebrated a highly successful attraction in the Newport Aquarium's 15th anniversary, and the news of future events that will bring in thousands of visitors to our region.

Thursday, May 15, I was honored to speak at the Newport Aquarium's 15-Year Anniversary Celebration, along with other state and local officials, recognizing its success and all it has done for Newport on the Levee. Newport Aquarium is a wonderful and educational attraction for our area. The interactive aquarium showcases thousands of fish and marine animals from all over the world. It has received national recognition, most specifically in its Shark Ray exhibit which is interactive and engaging to visitors of the aquarium. Thousands of families and school groups enjoy it every year, seeing and learning about the diverse marine life of Kentucky, the U.S. and beyond. The Newport Aquarium also has education and conservation outreach programs for schools and libraries through its WAVE Foundation.

Newport Aquarium was born out of a priority to expand the tourism opportunities of the area. Since its inception, I have helped to support and extend the funding of the tourism development act which provides incentives to develop such entities as the Newport Aquarium and boosts our potential to create successful attractions and new sources of economic development.

During the celebration, I presented the Newport Aquarium with a Kentucky Senate Resolution congratulating them on 15 years of success. Millions of tourists have visited the aquarium, which has been voted number one in the U.S. by USA Today's 10best.com website, recognized as a top aquarium by Travel Channel in 2013 and a top U.S. aquarium by US City Traveler in 2014.

In other good news for our region, the Kentucky High School Athletic Association recently announced that the girls Sweet 16 Basketball Tournament will be held at Northern Kentucky University in 2016. The Bank of Kentucky Center, which opened in 2008, is a modern and larger facility, better suited to meet the needs of the tournament. I worked with my colleagues in the Legislature to secure the funding for the center, which was put into place in the 2005 budget, and am glad to see the fruits of our work.

Hosting the tournament in Northern Kentucky will bring in thousands of guests, and will be a boost to the local economy. It will also showcase the area and potentially attract other events to take advantage of what the Bank of Kentucky Center has to offer.

I invite you to contact me with issues or concerns in Frankfort by leaving a message on the toll-free line, 1-800-372-7181.

Ladycats set to face Nicholas County in District Tournament

By Sam McClanahan, Reporter

With the regular season now in the rearview mirror, the Ladycats softball team now has its sights set on Tuesday, May 20, 38th District tournament showdown with Nicholas County (12-15). The contest will be played at 6:30 p.m. at Harrison County.

The Cats are hoping to become the first squad to earn a postseason win since 1998, while also clinching the program's first appearance in the regional tourney since 2002. Head coach Steven Peed knows that his club is a long-shot to attain those goals, but is optimistic that the Cats can pull off a shocker.

"We have to eliminate the mental errors and not beat ourselves," said Peed. "If we can hit the ball and get things going early then we have a chance. The girls are focused on doing something that has not been done around here in a long time."

If the Cats are to advance past the Lady Jackets they will have to fair much better than they did last week. After falling to Harrison County at home last Monday, the team lost both games of a doubleheader to Nicholas last Tuesday evening. The Cats scored a combined three runs in both games.

"It's not the ideal way that you want your team to head into postseason play," admitted Peed. "But we have to put those losses behind us and focus on the district game. The team is prepared to leave it all out on the field and do whatever it takes to get a win."

The winner of the Pendleton-Nicholas game will take on top-seed and host school Harrison County (16-15) for the district crown.

The championship game is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

Walker Lea set a personal best of 9 feet 6 inches in the pole vault. He finished 4th in the region and qualified as an at large bid for the KHSAA State Track Meet at University of KY on Friday, May 23.

Track competes at Class AA, Region 4 Meet

The meet started and before a Pendleton County High School athlete had a chance to officially compete, the Class AA Region 4 Track Meet went into an almost two hour weather delay.

When it resumed, the Cats put on a valiant effort but none automatically qualified and are waiting for the at large berths to see if they will get into the KHSAA State Meet.

After a week's wait for all of the region competitions had been completed, Walker Lea's 4th place region finish by clearing 9' 6" picked up an at large bid to the KHSAA State Track Meet on Friday, May 23rd at University of Kentucky. The Pole Vault Event is scheduled to start at 4:30.

Other regional competitors for Pendleton County and finishers were:

Girls 100 M Dash: Breanne Wilson 11th and Suzie Wright 14th.

Boys 100 M Dash: Logan Decker 12th and Jacob Nordheim 18th

Boys 1600 M Run: Holden Wolfe 15th

Girls 4 X 100 Relay: 9th finish for Susie Wright, Amber Blackaby, Breanne Wilson, and Kylie Figgins

Boys 400 M Dash: Montgomery Franxman 7th and Brett Bowen 16th

Girls 300 M Hurdles: Sidney Dietrich 15th

Boys 300 M Hurdles:

Morgan Bay competed in the 300 hurdles and finished 7th but was not able to pull an at large bid to the KHSAA State meet in his first season of track.

Morgan Bay 7th

Girls 800 M Run: Xanthia Jensen 8th

Girls 200 M Dash: Breanne Wilson 9th and Susie Wright 13th

Boys 200 M Dash: Logan Decker 16th and Brett Bowen 17th

Boys 3200 Meter Run: Walker Lea 8th, Holden Wolfe 9th

Boys 4 X 400 Relay: 7th for Caleb Vanorio, Morgan Bay, Logan Decker and Montgomery Franxman

Girls Shot Put: Alex Blackaby 9th and Hannah

Sweetland 11th

Boys Shot Put: Jordan Morgan 14th and Austin Magee 16th

Girls Discus: Alex Blackaby 9th and Hannah Sweetland 10th

Boys Discus: Jordan Morgan 13th and Austin Magee 16th

Girls Long Jump: Hannah Sweetland 11th

Boys Long Jump: Caleb Vanorio 8th and Chris Hess 13th

Boys Pole Vault: Walker Lea 4th and Jamie Nugent 7th

Wildcats vs Nicholas County in 38th District Tournament

Once the Kentucky High School Athletic Association realigned baseball before the 2006 season, one thing is guaranteed, Pendleton County and Nicholas County will face off in the first round of the 38th District Tournament.

This year and for the ninth year in a row, Wildcats versus Blue Jackets will be take place on Tuesday, May 20 at Iler Field located behind Pendleton County High School with first pitch at 5:30 p.m.

The winner moves on to the championship game scheduled for Wednesday, May 21 at Iler Field with first pitch at 5:30 p.m. and a berth in the 10th Region Tournament kicking off on Memorial Day.

The winner of the Harrison County/Robertson County game played on Monday night will also be in the championship game. Results were not available at press time.

Both Pendleton County and Nicholas County have won 13 games which is the 7th most in the 10th Region. The split in the regular season with the Wildcats winning 9-7 at home and the Blue Jackets holding off the Cats in a 4-2 decision in Carlisle.

Wildcat Baseball senior Trevor Turner lays the tag on the would-be Augusta base stealer. The Senior Captain will look to lead his Wildcats into the 10th Region Baseball Tournament starting with a first round 38th District Tournament matchup against Nicholas County on May 20.

Because of hail storms, the Cats were only able to play twice during the last week of the season. An 8-4 victory over Williamstown when Robbie Gas-kins' 3-run double broke open a tied game and a tough 4-0 loss to Scott High which is the 4th ranked team in the region and holders of a 20-victory season.

King named KHSAA Track Official of Year

By Sam McClanahan, Reporter

Pendleton County resident Tim King was recently named the track official of the year by the Kentucky High School Athletic Association. This is the first time he has received the honor during his 15 year career in officiating track and field as well as cross country.

"I am very humbled by the award. It is a very distinguished honor," said King. "I'm in some very elite company that have won the award in the past. Many of them have been my mentors throughout the years that I have been officiating," he continued.

King got involved in the sport when his son began running track in third grade. He says that once he began helping organize the meets he fell in love with the sport instantly. Currently, King serves as president for "Team Kentucky," a running club that takes youth cross country runners to compete in nationals. He's also the vice president of the Kentucky Association in the United States

Track and Field (USATF), assistant meet director for the KHSAA in track and cross country. He also holds a membership chair for the Kentucky Track Cross Country Coaches Association (KTCCCA).

King is a graduate of Bracken County High School but has made his home in Pendleton County for most of his adult life. He currently manages BB's Food Mart in Butler. He is the father of five children.

Optometrists provide tips for allergy symptoms

As spring hits full bloom, the unwelcome discomfort of seasonal eye allergies aren't far behind.

The colors of spring - with the green grass and yellow daffodils - all too often include the red of allergy sufferers' bloodshot eyes. Other spring allergy symptoms include swollen eye lids, dry eye, or itchy, watery eyes.

According to the Kentucky Optometric Association (KOA), irritation occurs when the eye comes in contact with pollen, dander, smog and mold. The body's immune response includes the release of the chemical histamine, which causes the redness, burning and itching associated with eye allergies.

"People who experience eye allergy symptoms should visit their local eye doctor," said Dr. Karoline Munson, an optometrist in Frankfort and president-elect of the KOA. "We can provide a proper diagnosis, so patients can receive the best treatment, which could range from over-the-counter allergy drops to prescriptive medicines."

In addition, the KOA offers these tips to help reduce the discomfort of seasonal eye allergies:

Maintain a healthy diet: Foods rich in anti-oxidants, including spinach, kale, broccoli carrots and red peppers, help improve the immune system and combat the symptoms of eye allergies.

Use preservative-free lubricating eye drops: Although antihistamines can help with typical symptoms like runny noses and sneezing, doctors of optometry warn those medications can make eye symptoms worse by reducing tear quality and quantity. The KOA recommends using preservative-free eye drops or, if you wear contact lenses, rewetting drops.

Apply a cold compress: This will provide quick, temporary relieve from itching and redness by constricting the blood vessels that are releasing histamine in the eyes.

Take fish oil supplements: Omega-3 fish oil also has anti-inflammatory properties that can help reduce redness and irritation.

THE NATE JONES REPORT

By Jack Wright

Pendleton County's hometown Major League Baseball star, Nathan Andrew "Nate" Jones, is in his third season as a relief pitcher with the Chicago White Sox. Below are brief details of his in-game activities for the week ending May 18, 2014.

After only four games into the 2014 Major League Baseball season (and two brief appearances by Jones), Nate was placed on the 15-day disabled list on April 4 due to what was then thought to be a glute muscle strain in the buttock area. Subsequent MRI (magnetic resonance imaging) procedures revealed herniated discs in the lower spine area. Nate was then placed on the 60-day DL (on May 3) and underwent microdiscectomy surgery on May 5.

Although it was reported here previously about the results of the surgical procedure and how Jones is recovering, this week I asked Nate to provide some personal input to be relayed to all of the participants of "The Jones Report" email distribution group and the followers of "The Nate Jones Report" published weekly in The Falmouth Outlook. The following was his reply:

"The surgery went well and I am now into the rehabilitation part of recovery. After over one full week of rehabilitation, I can feel a difference in doing everyday normal activities. There have some tougher days than others, but that is to be expected with a surgery like this. Thanks for all the prayers, get well cards, telephone calls, text and email messages during this time. I am hopeful to be back in action sooner rather than later."

Jones' stats for the season: 2 games; 0.0 innings pitched; 5 batters faced; 29 pitches (13 strikes); 2 hits; 3 walks; 4 runs (earned); 1 blown save.

Sox season record: 21 wins; 24 losses; fourth place in the American League Central Division; eight-and-a-half games behind the division leading Detroit Tigers.

Comments and/or suggestions about this column are welcome and can be emailed to jack_19366@msn.com. Currently there are 190 members of The Jones Report distribution group that receive instant email reports each time he pitches and sometimes when he doesn't. To join this group, email your first and last name to jack_19366@msn.com.

BERLIN BAPTIST

We invite all to come and worship with our family of believers. Sunday services begin with Sunday school at 10 a.m., morning worship at 11 a.m., and Sunday night services are held at 7 p.m., message by Bro. Dan Black.

This past Sunday was a wonderful time in the Lord at Berlin Baptist Church. Bro. Dan's message was taken from Mark 10:6-9 titled, "How to save The Family."

Spring revival will be held at 7 p.m., May 23 and 24 and on May 26 at 10 a.m., with evangelist Jerry Huffman. On Sunday May 24 a meal will be served following the morning service and also a special afternoon hymn sing featuring Jimmy Kirk. All are welcome to attend.

BUTLER BAPTIST

Sunday we honored some special mothers. The wisest mother was Bourbon Hopkins. The youngest mother was Mallory Mullins. The mother with the youngest child was Trisha Riley. The mother with the most children at church was Louise Pettit. She shared her flower with Pat Lynch in honor of what she does for the church. Bro. Daryl's message was from Proverbs 31:1-9 and it teaches us that the home is the foundation.

A mother's teaching is fundamental. She instructs her children and corrects them when they stray from the commandments. The passage tells us that there are three things that we are to avoid. Lust and immorality will destroy you and your family. Intoxicating beverages and substances does not drown your sorrows, it takes your life away. Jesus is the only thing that can take away your sorrows and save your life. We are to speak up for the rights of the defenseless, the poor and needy. Are you teaching God's principles to your children? Join us at 6-8 p.m., Thursday, May 22 for a free community spaghetti supper.

BUTLER METHODIST

The mothers were treated to pretty flowers surrounding the altar, after services they chose the one they wanted. Many thanks to the United Methodist men for providing them. We love all the mothers here at Butler UMC, whether they are grand, great-grand, first time, many times or just mothers to school children. You are all special in your own way.

Clay Eshman was here on Sunday, May 18, to give his testimony and share about the ministries he is involved in.

Vacation Bible School is coming very soon, be watching for more about this exciting time.

It was so good to see Dorothy Brown back with us, her family from Winchester came to be with her on Mother's Day. Please keep Brenda's grandson Ben in your thoughts and prayers, also Brandon Love's wife, Gale's uncle, Christine Gill, Steve Paynters grandson, Cheryl and Gary Baker's son-in-law, Barb Shelton, Sharon Mayes, Dan Roth, Jodi Ramey, Joyce Gibson, the Gosney family and all those who are suffering.

FALMOUTH CHRISTIAN

Bro. Rick's message was from II Kings 3:8-37 titled, "It Is Well."

Elisha and the Shunammite woman relied on God to solve the problem of her being barren and once again her son died.

Do people look at you and know you are a Christian? When you have a problem, say I am turning it over to You Lord. God will test us in everything we do. We are to keep our focus on Jesus. We try to work out the situation ourself and forget who in control. Can you say "all is well?"

Pray for the sick and the lost. Pray more people will follow God and not the devil. Keep God in your heart.

FALMOUTH WESLEYAN

May 11 was a special day at FWC. We honored our wonderful mothers with pictures and flowers. Also, we dedicated our baptistry to Ruth Elizabeth Wolfe who past on to glory September 11, 1994. She is the mother of our very own Norma McDowell. Pastor Nick's message was from Proverbs 31; though many women are called charming and many called beautiful, the godly woman is called blessed!

The service was especially blessed when David Priest and Alissia Tucker were baptized with water unto repentance. We look forward to seeing them both grow in grace and be baptized with the Holy Spirit.

Worship with us Sunday evenings at 6 p.m., with songs and fellowship. The message Sunday evening was from Mark 7:1-23; though our sinful actions need to be forgiven, it is an inner cleansing that is needed for believers to truly honor God with their hearts. Amen!

FIRST BAPTIST

Abram Crozier blessed us with special music this Mother's Day. Bro. Harry's message was taken from Samuel. Hannah was unable to have children. Other mothers made fun of her and picked on her for being childless. Hannah never gave up, she prayed all the time to have a son. She gave it all to God, and He provided her a son she named Samuel. When she had him, she promised God she would return her son to the church to live for God. She kept her promise and he was raised to serve the Lord. What a wonderful unselfish act for any mother to do.

At the close of service, each mother received a daily devotional book from the church.

"The best thing a Father can do for his children is to love their Mother!"

GLENWOOD BAPTIST

Everyone is invited to the Evangelistic Meeting at 6:30 p.m. nightly, May 25-28. We are located on Stewart Lane, a small street connecting Hay Station Road and Route 330. Our building is behind the Health Department and the Water District. For more information call Pastor Terry Parnell at 859-620-6033 or Clifford Wade at 859-322-2554. We hope to see you there!

HARVEST COMMUNITY

It was a beautiful Sunday to honor our mothers. Bro. Donnie's message was based on Proverbs 22:6 titled, "A Mother's Legacy." Children learn values, morals and priorities by observing how their parents act and react every day. If parents exhibit a deep reverence for and

"For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness; no evil dwells with You."

~ Psalm 5:4

dependence on God, the children will catch these attitudes. Let them see your reverence for God. Teach them right living by giving worship an important place in your family life and by reading the Bible together.

Our Memorial Weekend Retreat will begin at 6 p.m., Friday evening at the Creekside Pavilion. Saturday (adult day) will begin at 9 a.m., and Sunday (family day) services will begin with Bible study at 9:30 a.m., worship at 10:30 a.m., followed with a potluck meal and a fun afternoon.

Prayer concerns: Judy Redden, Jeffrey Edwards, Arnold Ross, Ann Ammerman and the families of Elwood Moore and Willard Shelton.

LIFECHURCH146

Service Sunday morning was led by the youth. We are proud of the leaders our teens are becoming. They completely led youth with drums, bass, guitar and vocals. They preformed, "I'm Trading My Sorrows, Enemies Camp, Amazing Grace and God's Not Dead." Worship was amazing! 13-year-old, Wesley Cain preached an awesome sermon opening it with Mother's Day comedy with his dad talking about "real mothers" and transformed it into his sermon about "real healing." Everyone was blessed beyond measure! Check out our Facebook page for church info. Services are Sunday snack/breakfast and fellowship at 10:30 a.m., and service at 11 a.m. Youth group meets Thursdays at 7 p.m., and our one year church anniversary is approaching June 2. It's been an awesome year!

MT. MORIAH

May 11 was a beautiful Mother's Day. Each mother was presented a lovely plant. "The Russell Sisters" (Julie, Donna, and Marsha) sang a beautiful song titled, "Mary, Mother of Jesus." Julie accompanied on the guitar. This very appropriate song reminded us that mothers can "set the tone" in your home.

Bro. Breeden spoke on Hebrews 11, "the heroes of faith." Will your name show up on this list? Heroes have endurance. Jesus was a hero of faith.

We need volunteers to work on our church basement. It was also announced that our Men and Boys' Camp Out will be on June 28. A fish fry will be held on June 29 for everyone. Mt. Moriah will also sponsor a concert for the Punches Family on May 30.

Grant and Felicia Caldwell are welcoming a new son, Caseten Robert. Grandmother Carol Caldwell is a very happy person! Congratulations to the family.

Our prayer list includes "Little Ellie," Levi Wolfe, Ronnie Hitch, Darrell Roberts, Vicki (daughter of Carmen Bentle Russell), Ann Ammerman, Donna Peoples, FIREhouse Ministries and our building project.

"We continually remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ." 1 Thessalonians 1-3.

NEW HOPE

This year is an election year, which means that we will decide who will be our leaders on city, county, state and federal level. Choosing our leaders is a serious decision and one that we should do with a lot of thought and prayer. Regardless of who wins or loses, we must understand that Jesus Christ still reigns. He is the King of kings and lord of lords. One day, every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that Jesus is Lord. Our God is still in control and He is the only one that knows the future. Do not put your hope and trust in men to fix your problems, put your trust and hope in the Lord.

NEW ZION

Come join us for worship and Christian fellowship. Sunday school begins at 10 a.m., morning worship is at 11 a.m., and evening worship starts at 6:30 p.m. Bible study is at 6 p.m., on Wednesdays.

Upcoming opportunities: Vacation Bible School will be from June 17-20.

Psalm 108:3 "I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations."

Please remember in prayer Janet Bishop, Sue Lucas, Hannah Perkins, Christine Gil, Christine Hutchinson, Danielle Klabber, Kay Thomas, Ruby Biery, Haley Teegarden, Tina Cochran, Pam Bruin, Joyce Steele, Willa Wilson, Lois Combs, Mickey Beamon, the Florenza and Wolf families. Also pray for our country and its leaders.

OAKLAND CHRISTIAN

Our weather has been so much better. We love those warmer temps. We pray all mothers had a special day.

We appreciate all those who came to our Memorial Service for Bro. Eudell Hall. He was our preacher for 24 years.

May 30 is a Lock-in planned for our grades 6 and up youth.

June 1 will be our Graduate Recognition Sunday.

Prayer concerns include Juanita King, Pam Bruin, Henry Bertram (shoulder surgery May 22), Dorothy Herron (sciatic nerve), Joyce Mains, Melvin Ramsey (ear surgery), Leon Galloway, Peggy Tucker, Donna Peoples, Donald Powell, baby Isaac Cervantes, Daryl Roberts, Curtis Ramsey, Juanita Bentle, shut-ins, cancer issues, armed forces and our leaders. Our sympathy to the loved ones of Brian Bishop and Tina Wolfe.

PLEASANT RIDGE

Hope all enjoyed a Happy Mother's Day. For a mother's heart, faith and steadfast love were fashioned by the angels and sent from God above.

Glad to see Sabrina and son Gavin return with us on Sunday. We may be a small country church but our doors are always open. Refueling the soul with God's word will get you through the week.

Bro. Rick's message was from 1 Corinthians 13:13. "And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love."

The sermon touch on 10 mothers that played a key role in the coming of Jesus Christ. Each showed their faith in God. Motherhood is one of life's greatest callings. The 10 mothers were Eve, Sarah, Rebekah, Jochebed, Rahab, Hannah, Ruth, Bathsheba, Elizabeth and Mary. Mary the mother of Jesus was the most honored mother in the Bible.

Sunday evening Bible study will be from various books of the Bible on Christian belief.

SOUTHSIDE

Happy Mother's Day to all the mothers! On May 10, the congregation opened the morning worship service with the hymn, "Crown Him With Many Crowns." Bro. Clay Sullivan preached the sermon, "Mother's Day" from Proverbs 31:10-31. Bro. Clay preached there are three things that mothers are or that mothers do: first, her hands work; second, her mouth speaks and third, her heart loves. The memory verse for the week comes from Proverbs 31:30, "Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised."

Be in prayer for all in one way or another. Come and worship with us this Sunday: Sunday school 9 a.m., and Worship Service 10 a.m.

Have a great day!

TRINITY

As we celebrated Mother's Day we had the privilege of honoring our mothers in our service. Flowers were presented to each mother and two special flowers were presented to Alice Conrad (oldest mother) and Barbara Adams (youngest mother).

The choir opened with "The Victor's Crown," and set the stage for the Spirit to flow straight from the opening to the special music. Thanks to the Adams family for the powerful song, "Jerusalem."

Bro. Hefner continued his sermon with part two of "In Defense of the Truth," taken from Jude. Do you defend your Lord daily? Don't let the devil pull your shirt tail, stand firm in the word.

Homemade Ice Cream Social will be at 7 p.m., May 30. Come bring your favorite flavor of ice cream and snacks. Vacation Bible School will be from 6:30-8:30 p.m., June 22-27.

"With my hand in your hand, your hand in God's hand...we can't go wrong."

TURNER RIDGE

Sunday, May 11 we recognized all the mom's in our congregation and lifted them in prayer for the endless hours of devotion a mom gives every day.

During children's worship Bro. Dale had baby bottles for each of the kids and explained that if they wanted to collect change in their bottle and then return it, we would turn those in to Care Net; and this money would help babies have food, clothes and the love they need to have a good life.

Sarah Jenkins read scripture from II Timothy 2:1-2. Bro. Dale's message was about Eunice: A Faithful Mother, II Timothy 1:5-7.

We hope everyone had a happy Mother's Day!

- 1 tbsp garlic powder
- 2 c barbecue sauce (your favorite)

Directions

- Preheat oven to 300 F.
- Peel off the tough membrane that covers the bony side of the ribs.
- Mix together sugar and spices to make rub.
- Apply rub to ribs on all sides.

- Lay ribs on two layers of foil (shiny side out and meaty side down).
- Lay two layers of foil on top of ribs. Roll and crimp edges tightly (edges facing up to seal).
- Place on baking sheet and bake for 2-2 1/2 hours or until meat is starting to shrink away from ends of bone.
- Remove from oven. Heat broiler.
- Cut ribs into serving sized portions.
- Arrange ribs on broiler pan, bone side up. Brush on sauce.
- Broil for 1 or 2 minutes until sauce is cooked on and bubbly.
- Turn ribs over. Repeat on other side.
- Instead of broiling, you can also finish ribs on the grill.

Steps to safe groundwater

Agricultural chemicals are an important part of many farm operations. Used properly, they help Kentucky farmers produce an abundant, safe food supply. If mishandled, however, they can contaminate groundwater, which is a source of drinking water for many residents.

You can reduce the chance that improperly used agricultural chemicals will contaminate groundwater by following these eight steps.

Read the manufacturer's label for each chemical you apply and follow the directions for safe use and disposal. Never pour chemicals together before disposing of them, because it might cause a dangerous reaction.

Mix and store chemicals at least 50 feet from a well, sinkhole or surface water sources such as ditches, ponds, streams or marshes. This is because you can't always detect which way a chemical will flow after a spill. Plus, subsequent rains can wash chemicals further, or in a different direction, than you think.

If you spill a pesticide on a hard surface, don't wash down the area, because it might carry the material to other water sources. Instead, surround the contaminated area with dirt or sprinkle an absorbent material such as sawdust or kitty litter over the spill. Then, put the absorbent material in a strong plastic bag and dispose of it in a safe manner.

Always keep the filling hose above the tank water level when filling the sprayer to prevent back-siphoning. Put a clamp on top of the tank to hold the hose if necessary. Be sure someone is paying attention to the sprayer the entire time it's being filled.

To prevent back-siphoning, install back-flow prevention or anti-siphon devices on the fill pipe between the water source and sprayer. A pump won't always prevent back-siphoning, because a voltage drop or uneven water supply could cause a pump to "cough" chemicals out.

Triple-rinse or pressure-rinse agricultural chemical containers prior to disposal and empty the rinse water into the spray tank. Rinse containers as soon as they are emptied to prevent residue from drying out. Dispose of the containers according to label instructions. Many counties have plastic container recycling programs.

Store chemicals in a dry, well ventilated, cool location, preferably with an inward-slanting concrete floor. Keep chemicals in the original, labeled container that's tightly sealed. Try to keep the containers off the floor by putting them on pallets or shelves.

Plan your required inventory and chemical purchases for the crop year so you can buy only what is necessary for that year. Try to use or give away leftover products instead of discarding them.

Inspect your well periodically. Pollutants can enter the well directly from the surface, openings in or beneath the pump base or soil next to the well. Be sure seals are tight between the pump and pump base and between the casing and wall of the bore hole. Check the pump for leaks. Locate and cap old wells.

For more information, contact the Pendleton County Cooperative Extension Service or the Kentucky Division of Environmental Services. The state environmental services division can assist with pesticide laws and recommendations as well as pesticide disposal and container recycling. Make your yard sale a success

Spring is a time when many people give their house a thorough cleaning. During this cleaning ritual, you may find that you've accumulated way too much stuff. A yard sale is a perfect way to remove household clutter and make some extra money.

Having a yard sale does not necessarily mean it will be a success. Careful planning and preparation beforehand can help you have the most successful yard sale possible.

Planning ahead is essential and should be done well in advance of the yard sale date. Start by sorting through your unwanted items. Make sure the items you plan on selling are gently used, not broken or missing parts, and void of stains, missing buttons or broken zippers. Organize similar items together. This can help you with pricing later.

You may also want to check with your local government to determine if they have any regulations about the number of yard sales you can have during a year or if they require a permit. This information is usually available on local government websites.

Location is an important key to a successful yard sale, as your customers may not want to travel far distances. If you have a family member or friend who lives near a main thoroughfare, subdivision or other desirable location, you may ask them if they would like to have a multi-family yard sale at their location. Another option is to talk with your neighbors about having neighborhood-wide yard sale.

When you price your items, make sure your asking price is reasonable for the piece and its condition. You may want to visit a few yard sales around the neighborhood beforehand to see the prices for similar items. You can purchase yard sale price stickers at many grocery stores or make your own with masking tape and a marker. When setting your prices, remember that your customers may like to negotiate so you should be willing to be flexible.

Timing is very important to the success of yard sales. Friday and Saturday are very popular days for yard sales. People usually have more disposable income at the first of the month compared to the end of the month. Many yard sales are also planned to coincide with local festivals. Many customers like to get out early to get the best deals, so plan on starting your yard sale by at least 8 a.m., but be aware that some people may be at your door earlier.

Advertise your event. Check with your local newspaper about the price and deadlines for classified advertisement. If it's not too expensive, newspapers are a great way to get the word out to others in your community. You can also promote your yard sale to your friends on social media or by giving flyers at groups to which you belong or that might have a special interest in your sale, such as young mothers if you have children's clothes or a book club if you have lots of gently used books.

Don't try to run a yard sale alone. Have at least one friend or family member help you keep an eye on your items, and never leave the cash box unattended.

For more information on family financial management topics is available at the Pendleton County office of the University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service.

Protecting your horses

Few things say spring in Kentucky like horses. Chances are if you are in the 4-H Horse Program you've been working diligently to prepare your horse for spring and summer shows, trail rides and camps. One important aspect to never forget is springtime vaccinations.

Traveling, showing and being around unfamiliar horses are very stressful situations for horses and can negatively affect a horse's immune system. If your horses have not been properly vaccinated, they are more likely to become sick while away, and they also may infect your other horses once they return to your farm.

All horses should receive annual vaccinations for tetanus, Eastern and Western equine encephalomyelitis, West Nile virus and rabies. Since Eastern and Western equine encephalomyelitis and West Nile virus are both transmitted by mosquitoes, it's important for you to have your horses vaccinated as soon as possible. Other vaccinations you may want to consider for your performance horses include equine herpes virus and influenza. If you don't already have a vaccination schedule, talk to your veterinarian about starting one.

You can also take preventative measures on your farm to decrease your horses' risk to mosquito exposure. Some simple things to do include eliminating stagnant water sources like old tires or buckets, making sure barn gutters are free of standing water and other debris, regularly flush waterers and remove tall vegetation around fence rows and property boundaries, as mosquitoes will seek shelter in these during the day.

If your horses do get sick, they should be on strict rest for one week for every day they have a fever. After that, they can gradually return to work.

For more information on equine care is available through the 4-H youth development agent at the Pendleton County Cooperative Extension Service.

Fresh rhubarb nut bread by the Amish Cook

The Amish Cook
By Lovina Eicher

It is beautiful May morning with the sun shining and the temperature already in the 60s, a perfect day for gardening!

We had a nice but cool day on Sunday to host church services. It was council meeting so church left out around 2:30 p.m. Services began at 9 a.m. Around 11:15 a.m., we had everything ready to begin serving lunch. We had table settings for 34 people at a time. After one table emptied, dishes were washed and set again for the next group. It took over two hours to serve everyone. Our church district has well over 100 children under age 16, so it takes time for everyone to eat. Our menu for lunch was chicken noodle soup, homemade wheat and white bread, bologna, cheese spread, peanut butter spread, dill pickles, sweet pickles, red beets, hot peppers, blackberry jam, butter, four different kinds of cookies, coffee and tea.

We prepared five and a half kettles (12 quarts each) of chicken noodle soup and had very little leftover. The 50 loaves of bread and cookies were all brought in by the church women. We exchange with one another so it doesn't make it so hard when your turn comes.

We invited some of the church families back for a 6 p.m. supper and also the youth in the community. We had around 130 people here for supper. On the menu for supper was meat and potato casserole (four big roasters full), ham and beans, green beans, tossed salad and dressing, bread, peanut butter spread, pickles, hot peppers, a variety of cakes, pies and ice cream.

After everyone is done eating, the tables are cleaned and the youth boys and girls (16 and over) all sit down to sing songs. The men also sit and help sing while the women help wash the dishes. They help sing as they wash dishes so it makes it go faster it seems. Our church has its own set of dishes such as glasses, coffee cups and silverware. The women put all the dishes right back in the totes and boxes so they are ready to be carried out to the bench wagon for the next services. It is always so relaxing to hear the singing after a long day. We have three daughters with the youth group already. Time seems to go faster each year. We were all tired and ready for bed after everyone had left by 9 p.m.

It makes it well worth your effort though when all the youth are respectful and I appreciated everyone expressing their thanks for having them here. May God guide each and everyone one of them through their young years and be their guide through their whole life.

Monday, daughter Verena and I cleaned up from the day before. Late afternoon Jacob, Emma and sons came to help get the benches and dishes back to the bench wagon.

Tuesday we did a huge laundry so that concluded the work from hosting church services for another year!

Try this bread with your rhubarbs.

Ingredients:

- 1 1/2 cups brown sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 1/2 cup diced rhubarb
- 2/3 cup vegetable oil
- 1 cup buttermilk
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 2 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts

Directions:

Mix together in the order given. Pour into well greased loaf pans. Sprinkle 1/2 cup sugar over top and 2 or 3 tablespoons melted butter over top of sugar. Bake at 325 degrees for 40 to 50 minutes or until toothpick comes out clean.

2014 acreage reporting deadlines

USDA Farm Service Agency (FSA) State Executive Director John W. McCauley reminds agricultural producers of the acreage reporting requirements that must be met prior to receiving program benefits. Filing an accurate acreage report for all crops and land uses, including failed acreage and prevented planting acreage, can prevent the loss of benefits for a variety of programs.

In order to comply with FSA program eligibility requirements, all producers are encouraged to visit their local FSA office to file an accurate crop certification report by the applicable deadline.

The 2014 Kentucky Acreage Reporting Deadlines are:

May 31- Nursery Preceding Year (report 2014 for 2015).

July 15- All other crops and CRP.

Sept. 30- Aquaculture; value loss and controlled environment crops (except nursery). Examples: Christmas trees, crustaceans, finfish, flowers, ginseng, grass sod.

Dec. 15- Fall seeded small grains. Examples: Barley, ganola, oats, rye, wheat. Preceding Year (report 2014 for 2015)

The following exceptions apply to the above acreage reporting dates:

If the crop has not been planted by the above acreage reporting date, then the acreage must be reported no later than 15 calendar days after planting is completed.

If a producer acquires additional acreage after the above acreage reporting date, then the acreage must be reported no later than 30 calendars days after purchase or acquiring the lease. Appropriate documentation must be provided to the county office.

If a perennial forage crop is reported with the intended use of "cover only," "green manure," "left standing," or "seed," then the acreage must be reported by July 15.

Noninsured Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP) policy holders should note that the acreage reporting date for NAP covered crops is the earlier of the dates listed above or 15 calendar days before grazing or harvesting of the crop begins.

For questions regarding crop certification and crop loss reports, please contact your local FSA office.
